PJs at School + Camping Out with Books = Fall Into Reading Night!

Tomorrow is Fall Into Reading Night here at Howard, and with the theme of 'Camp Out with Books' we are hoping to inspire a comfy, cozy atmosphere that will make kids want to curl up with a good book! And what better way to be cozy than by snuggling up in your favorite pajamas?

Let's get them 'dressed' and ready to go by wearing them all day at school, too!

As part of promoting our Fun Camp Out with Books, all students get to join the fun by wearing PJs all day at school AND at Fall Into Reading Night!

*But, please, NO slippers!!

OCTOBER MENU

OCTOBER 10-14th, 2016 IS NATIONAL SCHOOL LUNCH WEEK!

This year's theme, "Show Your Spirit," reminds parents, students and school officials that a healthy school lunch helps students power through the day. The HSSD Food Service team offers kid-friendly meals that are nutritious and delicious. To thank you for participating in the lunch program, Food Service will be offering activities and prizes throughout the week. Help "show your spirit" and join us for lunch! Bon appetite!

Conference scheduling request forms were recently sent home in your family folder. If you have not yet returned the form to school please send it back tomorrow as conference scheduling will take place this week. See details on free babysitting!

The Giving Tree Pantry will be holding a food drive during conferences. If you would like to donate items of need include oatmeal, soup, boxed potatoes and canned pasta.

COUPLE REMINDERS

HOWARD HUSKY OCTOBER EVENT CALENDAR

Students have learned about personal space in the recent weeks. They have learned about keeping boundaries through using carpet squares, hula hoops, and a bubble activity. Two characters have helped reinforce this idea: Space Invader and Space Respector. Space Invader gets into people's personal space, while Space Respector reminds others when they are too close to someone. You can use this language at home if your child needs reminders about personal space. A fun activity to try is to have your children sit near one another. You can blow bubbles toward them, but their goal is to stay within their bubble space, not to reach into the

Speak Up 2016

The Speak Up Research Project polls K-12 students, parents and educators about the role of technology for learning in and out of school and represents the largest collection of authentic, unfiltered stakeholder voice on digital learning. Since 2003, more than 4.5 million participants have shared their views and ideas through Speak Up. Education, business and policy leaders report that they use the data regularly to inform federal, state and local education programs. The Speak Up 2016 online surveys open October 12, 2016 through December 16, 2016. Please read more at Howard Elementary - Password flyer.
